President Paul opened the meeting promptly. Lion John led the pledges to the flags. Lion Paul gave prayer. Lion Don did not attend so there was no song.

Secretary's minutes were emailed, read, and no corrections reported. Motion to accept as written was made by Lion Bob, seconded by Lion Bud and passed.

No Treasurer's report was given. .

There will be baseball games tomorrow and Friday nights. President Paul asked for volunteers to work the concession stand. A tournament will be held this weekend and concession stand shifts are available.

Lion Bud has sent an email requesting the Berry Center for the Annual Magic Show. He has received a response and at the current time, it appears that the date of the Magic Show will be determined in late June. Lion Bud will continue to work on the schedule.

Lion Bud has sponsored Lions Camp Camper. James Rick Collins "Ricky". Ricky's mother needs to provide medical data for the camp.

Lion Bud is requesting to attend the Guiding Lions Training. Email has been sent to Lion Chuck.

The next Lions Cabinet Meeting will be held June 11th, Saturday 9-12 at our facility. All Lions are welcome to attend.

The Kickball Tournament is on and Scheduled for the weekend of July 9th. This date has been approved by the Cy Fair Sports Association.

With regrets, Lion Clayton has resigned from the Cy Fair Lions Club. No updates were available on Lion Don nor Lion Millie.

Post flooding, Lions Bud and Dorothy indicated that most of the sheetrock repair had been completed in their home. The Home Office still needs repair. Hail damage is being addressed by Eagle Restoration, Tomball. Lion Paul mentioned that most of the repair needed at his home had been completed).

With no further business, Lion Bud dismissed us after a Lions Roar.
